

Oath of an Executor.

Mr. William Stoner and Levi Frick Do solemnly swear that we believe this writing to be and contain the last Will and Testament of Jonathan Stoner; deceased, and that we will well and truly execute the same, by first paying his debts, and then his legacies, as far as the said Estate shall extend, or the Law will charge; and that we will well and faithfully execute the office of Executor, agreeably to the trust and confidence reposed in us, and according to Law: So help me God.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this the 16 day of April 1872.
